Subject: Comment in support of RIN 1210-AB30

April 25, 2010

A strong U.S. needs not only their citizens to have their physical well being being cared for but also their mental stability. It should not be up to insurance companies to charge more for treatment. Therefore, I am writing to support the interim final rule under the Paul Wellstone and Pete Domenici Mental Health Parity and Addiction Equity Act of 2008 (RIN 1210-AB30).

I support the strong rule that would forbid insurance companies from charging higher copayments, deductibles, and other out-of-pocket expenses for mental health treatment than they would for other physical health care. Thank you for ensuring that mental health care and physical health care coverage are included in a single deductible.

Sincerely,

Cecilia Flores
