General Comment

Thank you for... Your concern I guess? However I believe that if I generally cannot distinguish good investments from bad" that is none of your business. I don't need government to tell me what and where to invest, or hold my investor hostage because of a choice I made.

Maybe your agency would be better off to figure out how to make pay cuts for government workers at ALL levels. Then maybe I can keep some of my own income to invest, rather than send it all to Washington in the form of taxes to fund agencies like this in their attempt to save me from myself.
