General Comment

I am an American and want to live as the Founder's interpreted our liberty and freedom. I do not want the state interfering with my affairs.

I believe that this type of socialism is killing our country and introducing recycled ideology that has never been successful. Human nature has not changed in thousands of years, no matter how you want to market progressiveness. We will always be doing things the same way, because people cannot stand others being free to do as they wish to be happy. There will always be people who are not happy unless they are controlling something and controlling people.

Leave our system of liberty alone. We can take care of ourselves without the intervention of the federal government.

Let us handle our own affairs, and teach children how to be adults, rather than how to be subservient and dependent on government. We will eventually go under with this type of strategy for living.
