General Comment

I am smart enough to take care of my retirement. The US government--Obama or his cronies, has no business sticking their noses in my retirement. So, get out where you are not wanted or needed!!!!
I have always respected the office of the Presidency, and I do today, but the work Obama has promoted in his terms have been very disappointing. We the people have been put aside for the personal benefit of Obama and the rest of his little followers. This is an example of that push for personal power.
