General Comment

I understand that President Obama wants to meddle in my retirement plans and thus make it hard for me to retire! The Department of Labor(DOL) is starting to enact regulations that would restrict how I use my own money for my retirement planning. So now it has come to this - Mr. Obama and the Department of Labor now believes they have the authority to think for me since they believe this too is the responsibility of a nanny government/state and believes I 'm not smart enough to plan my own retirement. This is the epitome of the progressive nanny state mentality.

Bottom line, the DOL and the Obama administration needs to stay out of meddling in my financial affairs as illustrated with the attempts to restrict.my retirement funding.
