General Comment

Knock it off and stop the bullying! CONTRACEPTIVES and STERILIZATION: You are trying to force your beliefs on those that find it offensive. Just because those of us in the minority, lack the voice and are considered unpopular by the media you are imposing your own narrow views and values. (which is a lack of values in view of human life). When did pregnancy become such a foul disease and abortion a legal way to end a life? Funny if you think one can be charged with manslaughter when involved in a motor vehicle accident and the woman involved loses the baby. Stop bullying those who find it objectionable, we in the health field have rights too. And if you think about it, we are now the victim. RELIGIOUS EMPLOYER EXEMPTION: Wow! How can you sleep at night when you cause such a raping of religious freedom? Religious organizations have served their community long before politicians ever became involved. Actually, you are the ones that muck things up and make it near impossible for doing the right thing. I know your parents taught you right from wrong, and yes it is that simple. Rescind the abomination, or at least revise what you have put forth which will reflect a more inclusive definition of religion. Religious freedom is something near and dear to our Country and which sets us head and shoulders above all others.
