General Comment

I applaud any effort to bring Lower cost health coverage to those of us in need. I am a broker in Connecticut - A state that only allows for 3 choices of health coverage providers at astronomical expense for limited coverage with high deductibles.

Other States have selections in some counties of 18 or more health insurers bidding for you business and keeping the costs extremely affordable. I hope that this plan can come together and that we can finally see some assistance in this much needed area.
