General Comment

I am strongly in support of allowing realtors access to purchasing health insurance through a larger group of professionals. My family health insurance costs have risen astronomically over the last five years to the point where my wife and I have had to use a short-term medical coverage with high deductibles in order to have any health care coverage. Our monthly premiums were over $3,000 and could not be continued at that rate.

Please do what is right to keep our costs under control!!
