General Comment

I have been a single mom of three for over 13 years. I have been self-employed as a Childcare Provider and now as a Realtor for most of that time. The cost of health insurance has crippled me to the point where I cannot afford to send my children to college. They are all covered under their father's health insurance policy, so I just need coverage for myself. My premiums have tripled over the past several years and are now at $476/month. I would certainly appreciate alternative options. Thank you for your time.
