General Comment

Thank you for allowing comments on this important issue that will affect so many retiring Americans. I believe Secretary of Labor Mr. Scalia has it right. American citizens spend a majority of their lives working hard to invest into their futures. I have been contributing to my pension for several years and I hope and pray it is not going to causes that are, in my opinion, controversial due to certain fund managers who are not looking in the best interest of their clients funds, but rather promulgating a radical agenda. Please be responsible and ensure Mr. Scalia's proposed rule passes. Thank you.

Cordially,
Lance Neal
