Subject: Employers CHIP Model Notice

The model notice published in the federal register at 75 FR 5808, 2/4/10, speaks in terms of the “employer” sending the notice to employees. In a multiemployer plan, does the plan send the notice or does each contributing employer?

Usually, in a multiemployer plan the plan NOT the employer sends out Notices.

Just wanted to clarify as our client base is multiemployer plans.

Thanks!!
