Dear [REDACTED]

Your complaint to the Department of Labor protesting the June 30, 2016 election of officers in UNITE HERE Local 5 in Honolulu, Hawaii has been investigated pursuant to Sections 402 and 601 of the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959.

Following a review of the investigative findings by this office and the Office of the Solicitor, Division for Civil Rights and Labor-Management, a decision has been made that those findings do not provide a basis for action by the Department to set aside the protested election.

A statement of reasons setting forth the basis for this decision will be mailed to you at a future date.

Sincerely,

Sharon Hanley
Chief, Division of Enforcement
