

PUBLIC SUBMISSION

|  |
|--|
| Received: May 11, 2022Tracking No. 132-ceoq-e61iComments Due: May 16, 2022Submission Type: Web |
|--|

Docket: EBSA-2022-0002

Request for Information on Possible Agency Actions to Protect Life Savings and Pensions from Threats of Climate-Related Financial Risk

Comment On: EBSA-2022-0002-0001

Request for Information on Possible Agency Actions to Protect Life Savings and Pensions from Threats of Climate Related Financial Risk

Document: EBSA-2022-0002-DRAFT-0064

1210-ZA30 comment 00119 IFPTE Local 777, AFL-CIO 05112022

---

Submitter Information

Organization: IFPTE Local 777, AFL-CIO

---

General Comment

I represent a federal sector local union, and in response to question 18, I suggest that communicating with the local unions that represent federal bargaining units to obtain this type of information. This could be through surveys, invitation of union officials to roundtable meetings/listening sessions, and/or promulgating a pilot program with an option for bargaining units to opt in.