The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, Division of Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation (DEEOIC) invites you to a webinar discussion on National Office Branch of Policy, Regulations & Procedures Roles and Responsibilities under the Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act (EEOICPA).

This is your opportunity to hear from the DEEOIC National Office Policy Branch Chief. He will discuss the various functions of the National Office Branch of Policy, Regulations & Procedures Roles and Responsibilities under the EEOICPA and conclude with answers to your questions. You can submit questions during the webinar or in advance at DEEOIC-Outreach@dol.gov.

The presentation will cover:

- Policy Directives – Bulletins, Circulars, and Transmittals
- Internal Staff Guidance – Procedure Manual
- Website Navigation

Moderator/Presenter

- John Vance, Chief, Branch of Policy, Regulations & Procedures

The Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act provides lump-sum compensation and medical benefits to current and former nuclear weapons workers whose illness is a result of working in the nuclear weapons industry. Survivors of qualified workers may also be entitled to benefits. Covered illnesses include radiation-induced cancer, chronic beryllium disease, beryllium sensitivity, chronic silicosis, or any illness due to exposure to toxic substances.
