

Former Worker Medical Screening Program (FWP)

Hearing Loss and Its Implications on Compensation

DOE and the Former Worker Programs are partnering to host a public webinar that will provide information on hearing loss and its implications on compensation.

Presenter: Marianne Cloeren, MD, MPH

Discussion will include:

- Review of anatomy and physiology of hearing
- Audiometry interpretation
- Review compensation guidelines regarding hearing loss
- Discuss patient counseling regarding hearing loss

Presenter Biography:

Dr. Marianne Cloeren, MD, MPH, is a physician board-certified in Occupational Medicine and Internal Medicine, with decades of experience managing teams of clinicians, serving as Medical Director for a variety of private and government programs. Work experience includes interacting with remote nurse case managers, managing quality assurance and audits, and delivering effective and well-reasoned case reviews in a federal program; she has written or overseen the production of tens of thousands of such reviews. She was appointed in 2022 to the Department of Labor Advisory Board on Toxic Substances and Worker Health. Dr. Cloeren serves as Medical Director for the Building Trades National Medical Screening Program (www.btmed.org).
