General Comment

I am an individual "dumb money" investor and am in full support of this amendment. The sheer fact that QPAM even exists is discouraging. Making special rules for 'special' people is one of the cornerstones as to why our economy is faltering. And who is punished by allowing these greedy special interests to continue unscathed?; the everyday American taxpayer who can't afford to play the system. Please put an end to this corruption for the little guys. We sincerely appreciate all the hard work everyone has put into attempting to reform provisions favoring big business.
