General Comment

I'm an investor and US Citizen who is in favor of the proposed amendment. For too long, Wall Street executives and firms have committed crimes, including fraud and insider trading; and gotten away with little to no punishment. If they are even punished, the lack of prison time for individuals and the fines that amount to a tiny percentage of the ill-gotten gains for the companies only act to incentivize future crime and playing fast with the rules. In effect, for Wall Street, crime pays. The proposed amendment is a small but necessary attempt to rein in the rapacious greed and excesses of unscrupulous financial workers and entities. More is needed but any little bit helps. So please enact with haste. Thank you.
