Part B: Dose Reconstruction & Probability of Causation

Part B eligibility for cancer is determined by:

- ▶ Membership in Special Exposure Cohort (SEC). Presumption that the diagnosed specified cancer was caused by radiation exposure during their eligible SEC employment.
- ▶ Dose reconstruction performed by the National Institute for Occupational Safety & Health (NIOSH). DOL uses the dose reconstruction to determine Probability of Causation (probability or likelihood that a cancer was caused by radiation exposure incurred by a covered employee in the performance of duty). POC must be above 50% for compensability.

Hanford Site SEC

An Employee that worked 250 aggregated workdays for the covered time period(s) listed below, can be included in the Special Exposure Cohort (SEC).

Facility	Beginning Date	Ending Date
Hanford	*January 1, 1984	*December 31, 1990
	July 1, 1972	December 31, 1983
	October 1, 1943	June 30, 1972

* All employees of Department of Energy contractors and subcontractors (excluding employees of the following Hanford prime contractors during the specified time periods: Battelle Memorial Institute, January 1, 1984 through December 31, 1990; Rockwell Hanford Operations, January 1, 1984 through June 28, 1987; Boeing Computer Services Richland, January 1, 1984 through June 28, 1987; UNC Nuclear Industries, January 1, 1984 through June 28, 1987; Westinghouse Hanford Company, January 1, 1984 through December 31, 1990; and Hanford Environmental Health Foundation, January 1, 1984 through December 31, 1990) who worked at the Hanford site in Richland, Washington, during the period from January 1, 1984 through December 31, 1990, for a number of work days aggregating at least 250 work days, occurring either solely under this employment, or in combination with work days within the parameters established for one or more other classes of employees included in the Special Exposure Cohort.

Part E Causation

- The standard for establishing causation is whether it is at least as likely as not that exposure to a toxic substance at a DOE facility was a significant factor in aggravating, contributing to, or causing the illness or death.
- Causation under Part E may be established by an acceptance under Part B. Based on this acceptance, exposure and causation are presumed to already exist.
- Occupational History Interview conducted by Resource Center Staff
- Case development may include a review of employment records, Site Exposure Matrices (SEM) data, Industrial Hygienist review, Toxicologist review, review of DEEOIC Exposure & Causation Presumptions, and/or a request for a medical opinion.

Site Exposure Matrices (SEM)

- ▶ The SEM is a repository of information on toxic substances present at Department of Energy (DOE) and Radiation Exposure Compensation Act (RECA) sites covered under Part E.
 - Information in SEM is gathered from a variety of sources
 - Scientifically establishes links between toxic substances / illnesses
 - Training and Public access to SEM is available the DEEOIC website:
<https://www.dol.gov/owcp/energy/regs/compliance/seminfo.htm>

The screenshot shows the top portion of the DEEOIC website. At the top left is the U.S. Department of Labor logo and the text "U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR". To the right are radio buttons for "All DOL" and "OWCP", and a search bar. Below this is a navigation menu with links: "A to Z", "Site Map", "FAQs", "Forms", "About DOL", "Contact Us", "Español", and "Help Guide". The main heading is "Office of Workers' Compensation Programs" with social media icons for SHARE, Facebook, Twitter, and Email. A breadcrumb trail reads: "DOL Home > OWCP > DEEOIC > SEM Introduction > SEM home page > Detailed SEM Data home". A disclaimer states: "The site specific information in this database reflects available data and may not be complete. The results should be used with a full understanding of the limitations of the current dataset." The main text welcomes users to the expanded SEM, explaining it contains more data and ways to look for information regarding toxic substances at facilities covered under Part E of the EEOICPA. It notes that the information is a reflection of data collected to date and that users are encouraged to submit additional information via the Site-Related Information Submittal Form. At the bottom, there are radio buttons to filter by site type: "Show DOE sites", "Show uranium mines", "Show uranium mills", "Show Ore-buying stations", and "Show uranium transport". A "Site:" dropdown menu is set to "Select", followed by a link: "Click here to locate a site by alias, description and owner/operator, if you cannot find the site you are looking for in the list above."

Claimant Responsibilities

- ▶ File claim
- ▶ Collect / Copy / Submit relevant records for review
- ▶ Respond to information requests

Claim Decision Process

Recommended Decision (District Office)

- Reviews the record
- Develops Factual information
- Issue a Preliminary Determination

Final Decision (Final Adjudication Branch)

- Affirm decision or remand
 - Claimant has right to object to RD through a Hearing or Review of the Written Record
- Post FD Claimant rights:
 - Reconsideration

Medical Benefits

- ▶ Broad coverage for medical treatment costs linked to accepted work-related illnesses:
 - Office visits (including lab and radiology services)
 - Prescriptions
 - Medical travel expenses
 - Equipment (wheelchairs / supplies)
 - Home and vehicle modifications
 - Extended and hospice care
 - Home health care

Filing for Additional Illnesses

- If the employee develops additional condition(s) believed to be related to occupational toxic exposure, the employee (or survivor) can file a claim for the additional condition(s).
- Claims for other illnesses can be filed at any time regardless of whether initial claim is accepted or denied.
- Similar process to initial claim but we may be able to use some of the previously collected evidence.

Consequential Conditions

- If it is determined that an accepted condition caused, contributed to, or aggravated a claimed consequential condition, the consequential condition will be accepted under the same part types as the accepted condition.
 - Medical benefits are typically awarded retroactive to the eligibility date of the accepted condition. Some exceptions may apply.
 - Acceptance of a consequential condition may also result in impairment and/or wage loss compensation eligibility under Part E.
 - Consequential conditions are accepted by Letter Decision issued by the District Office, no Final Decision is required.
 - If a consequential condition claim is recommended for denial, a Recommended Decision is issued, and the case is sent to the Final Adjudication Branch for review.
